NOTICES

The 125th Anniversary booklets for the Randolph Church are now available. You may pick up your copy at church or at the library. No charge.

Lost at the Boothman Spring cookout: A silver fold-up table that is in a black bag with yellow "Cabelas" on the outside. It may look like a folding chair only slightly larger. Call Bill Arnold, 466-2438.

Judy Hudson's terrific book about the RMC, Peaks and Paths, is available from the Hudsons (abhudson@anthro.umass.edu or 466-5509) and on the RMC website. It is expected also to be for sale at Lowe's, AMC Pinkham and Highland Center, White Mountain Cafe & bookstore, Village Book Store in Littleton, & White Birches in Conway. The RMC is getting the profits from the sale of the book. Best way to benefit the RMC is to purchase it from the Hudsons or the website because other sites have it at 40 percent off, says Judy.

Lost at the RMC picnic: A new, grey & black bicycling glove, with no fingers. If found, please leave it on the front porch of 27 High Acres Road. It will be retrieved by the owner.

Al Hudson conducts rounds at the 97th RMC picnic & charades.

This is the last 2010 Randolph Weekly. Have a wonderful winter. See you next year.

Notices for each Weekly must be at Gail Scott's home office (162 Randolph Hill Road) by Wednesday noon.
